QUOTE OF THE DAY

“Very few children have any problem with the world of the imagination; it's their own world, the world of their daily life, and it's our loss that so many of us grow out of it.” – Madeleine L'Engle

“Stop the habit of wishful thinking and start the habit of thoughtful wishes.” – Mary Martin

“Find the good — and praise it.” – Alex Haley

“Vision is the art of seeing things invisible.” – Jonathan Swift

“Far away in the sunshine are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them, and try to follow where they lead.” – Louisa May Alcott

“Friendship is unnecessary, like philosophy, like art...It has no survival value; rather it is one of those things that give value to survival.” – C.S. Lewis

“Art and mass entertainment and propaganda, they can all be plotted on the same graph, but there is a difference.” – David Mamet

“It is curious that physical courage should be so common in the world, and moral courage so rare.” – Mark Twain
